Tara, Colleen and family, I am sitting here tears filling my eyes, remembering your beautiful father. He was such an amazing human being. I would see him often whether at St Johns or St Francis in Purcellville, always so friendly and would always stop and chat. He was a beacon of light in this dark world. I'm sorry I cannot attend his services, but please know that you all are in my prayers. May eternal rest be granted to Mr Dwyer and perpetual light shine upon him!❤️ My sincerest condolences. Charlie was our neighbor and our friend. Some of you may know our story but let me remind you. My name is KC LeBlanc, my husband was Robert LeBlanc. Our house is directly across the street from Charlie's house. Bob and Charlie compared lawn mowers, trucks, military, yards and driveways. Bob loved his tractor and a good snowstorm. Charlie loved mowing his yard. Charlie watched out for Bob because he knew Bob was ill. Bob was 55 and Charlie was 86 at that time. One day Charlie was helping Bob move his truck because it was hot and Bob couldn't be in the heat. When Charlie came back to give Bob his keys he found Bob. Charlie called 911 and did CPR on my husband Bob for 12min. As a nurse I can tell you that 12 min must have been physically very difficult for Charlie. I arrived at the house and Charlie explained to me how bad he thought it was and what did he need to do to help me. He didn't know but he had already done everything he could have done. Charlie gave my family time to say goodbye, he gave other family time to come into town to say good bye. A year later we put Charlie in for an award from the county but he didn't want anything to do with it. Dang it I really wanted to have him honored. Charlie you are a great man, you did good in your years here. We will always remember you and appreciate all you have done for us. If your family needs anything they can call me. I will try to honor you and Bob. Much love and blessings. Good bye for now. KC LeBlanc and Family

Thank you KC.... My dad so admired and loved Bob. I think he forever carried it with him that he hadn't brought Bob back fully. He loved your family. I am sure they are together walking through the most majestic tractor show of all time.
