I'm so glad that Shirley and I became friends. Early in our relationship, Shirley decided we should call ourselves "sisters." We enjoyed many a trip to WalMart and eating out together most of the time with Linda but sometimes just the two of us. I envy Shirley being in Heaven with our Lord and Savior. No more tears or sadness or pain. Just basking in the glory of God. Donna Wildermuth

Linda (Blackwell) Wenkel lit a candle in honor of Shirley .

I miss you, Mommy. It was such a blessing to share the last year and 4 months with you in our home. Your last birthday, Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. I can't believe you are gone, but I will see you again one day soon. May God hold you in his loving arms. Rest in peace, Mom.
