Dolly, I often smile and think of all the fun times we have had. Getting in the car Skeeter you and me heading to Atlantic City such fun times and wonderful memories. Us pulling in the driveway in time for you to go to work. The times at the beach house I cherish these memories with you. I want to define my memories to you Dolly. My memory of you is a way of holding onto things I love. The things I am and the things and memories I never want to lose. Love you Dolly rest In Peace Pam Brown (Albright)

Dearest Brown Family, We are so grateful for the time we got to spend with Vicky, both at church and family functions. The reality of her being gone really hit us when she wasn't sitting in front of us at church this past Sunday. It was the 1st time in a long time I wasn't fixing an earring for her or passing candy back and forth. We are so thankful for those memories and many more! May God continue to hold you in His arms and quickly fill the hole that has been left in your hearts! Blessings and peace to all of you during this time of grief! We love you! Wes and Stephanie

Dolly, all I can say is. I cant believe you are gone. I am going to miss stealing half of your candy, and you giving me the rest. You unknowingly became like a mother to me these past couple of years. In absence of my own, you can me some wisdom and love that I had been missing for a while. I know you are no longer in pain, and suffering. Those two facts alone, bring some peace to my heart. Rest easy knowing, you and always will be loved and cherished by everyone that knew you. Your dad and family are in good hands. I love you, and miss you with all my heart.Love always and forever,Your adopted son..Bobby Butler

Nannie Jacob loved you as much as you loved him.....you were his baby sitter since day one. Until he went to school. How is my boy, is what you said everytime you called. His heart will forever have a hole in it without hearing from you!! My favorite thing to hear was Jacob I Love You Baby to the moon and back. In 17 years he was never to old to hear that. You have taught so many people what unconditional love is. You were in pain most days. Know you are home without pain. To T he Mo and Back, Nannie

I use to love waiting on her at Food lion when she would come play the lottery or buy groceries. She was such a sweet lady. I don't think I ever seen her in a bad mood or upset when she came in the store. It was a pleasure to have known her the short time I did and I know she is in good hands now. May you rest in peace Mrs. Butler! My condolences go out to her family and friends as they go through this hard time in there lives especially her children. Jennifer, I am here for you if you need anything. Praying for you all!!Deanna M. Zavala
