I married Sandy, and my friend Gary married my sister Diane...when we were about 10 years old in the woods by LaNunziata and Santini house. We thought we'd get married when we got older. I never bumped into her, she was in VA. Hi Shari, I remember you, too. Hi Ann. Ed died too. Both my parents died.

Dear Anna, I just heard of your daughter Sandra passing away. My heart aches for you and your family. The moment I heard the sad news my mind thought of the time I spent with you and Ted in Germany. I think Sandra was about 3 years old at the time. I have wonderful memories of how kind you were to me and my friend. Times like that I will never forget. My prayer has always been that God has provided a way to be reunited with our loved ones through Jesus Christ. I pray that you may find some peace in His promise as time passes on. Love, Sandy
