Rachel and I were colleagues years ago. We taught together at Loudoun Valley. I was more than fond of her. I live in the Winchester/Berryville area, and we hadn't been in touch for quite some time. I learned just today (Monday, Jan. 7) of her passing. I am stunned and deeply, breathlessly saddened. Rachel was among the best humanity had to offer. I was a better teacher---and person---for her presence. We desperately needed her here. Apparently, the Lord needed her more. I will have a Mass offered in her sweet memory, and will pray for her, and to her, on a regular basis. - Marc Adams

It is with such heartbreak that Bob and I send our condolences to all of our dear Leister family. Rachel left way too soon, but I have no doubt she went straight to heaven to the arms of God and all of our dearly beloveds that have passed. Rachel touched so many people here on earth that she already had her wings. The out-pouring of love for her expresses how she passionately changed so many kid's lives. Rest In Peace dear girl And give Uncle Earl a hug for me!Leslie and Bob Orr
