James C. Garrison

NOV 4, 1932 - DEC 22, 2018

James Clifford Garrison
November 4, 1932 - December 22, 2018

James (Jim) Garrison passed away on Saturday December 22, 2018 at Inova Fairfax Hospital surrounded by loved ones. Jim was 86.

Jim was born on November 4, 1932 in Hamilton, Ohio to Jessie and James Charles Garrison. After graduating high school he joined the US Navy to serve his country. He proudly served from 1953 to 1972. During an active-duty assignment to Argentina, Newfoundland he met his wife Stella Marie Pumphrey and they married September 3, 1956.

Throughout his naval career he had several duty stations including: Argentina, Newfoundland, Norfolk, Virginia, and London, England, they settled in Vienna, Virginia in 1973. Over 14 years, the couple welcomed four children (Sherri, Jimmy, Michele, and Tami) into their home; after retirement they settled in Ashburn, Virginia.

Jim adored his wife Stella; their family was built on love and admiration, a catalyst which formed an unbreakable bond until she passed away after 58 loving years of marriage. He was truly devoted, not only to this country, but his wife and children. Jim had many hobbies and liked to “fix” anything. After the passing of Stella, he enjoyed going to the casinos and traveling with his new gambling buddy Sherri or working in the yard with his neighbor and friend Wilson. He was a loving man filled with care and compassion. He taught his children by silent example. Jim was always known as the “nicest, sweetest, caring man”. He ended every phone call with “I love you” and every goodbye with a big hug and kiss. He was a God fearing man that believed in the power of prayer. He was a long-time member of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church in Vienna, and St. Theresa Catholic Church in Ashburn.

Dear Garrison family How saddened I was to hear about the death of your dad. It was announced over the altar as I was singing in the choir at OLGC. What fond memories I have of your family when we were back yard neighbors in Vienna. What a wonderful tribute to your dad with all of the pictures, etc. So great for me to see pictures of all of you after many years. I have seen Tammy a few times. So sorry to miss the funeral (I have been to St Theras's on many occasions) but I didn't know about it in time. My love to all, Diane Donnelly

Allan Steed lit a candle in honor of James.

Hi Sherri and Jim's Family - I was shocked when Wilson told me about Jim's passing on Saturday, when I got home from my Christmas morning service at St. David's Episcopal Church. As one of the original home owners on our street, Jim has been one of my neighbors, from day 1 in 2002, and it has been an absolute pleasure knowing him over the years. I had fun each Christmas, trying to keep up with him on decorating our homes for celebrating our Lord and Saviors Birth. I think we shared the love of decorating for the holiday's and it was such an honor to know him. I am so sorry for your loss. In Loving Memory, Allan Steed.

I was so sad to read about his passing. My family and I were on our way to dinner that night and I want you to know he was not alone. I was the first one to get to him. I held his hand until the paramedics asked us to leave. I saw his rosary and asked if he would like me to say it with him, but he didn't want that. I was praying for him after we left and hoping for the best. I am deeply sorry for your loss.
