Mom/gGrandma loved us from our first breath, held our hands through the years, guided us along the paths that our lives took, taught us that there is nothing we can't make it through to hold our faith and follow our hearts. She gave us her all and asked nothing in return. She gave us all the stepping stones in life to become the people we are today, and through it all she stood proud of us all. Her family meant the world to her. It will be hard on us to let her go physically, but we carry her with us each and everyday in our hearts and our thoughts. The sun rising will remind us of the warmth of her love. Flowers blooming will remind us of her love for life. Our trials and tribulations will remind us of how strong willed she was. There's a part of her in each and every person that hears or reads this and we can all be so honored that she was a part of our lives. We will always love you mom, /grandmother. We will carry you with us each day in our hearts. We will mourn our loss but rejoice that you are in a better place sitting with your mother and loved ones, awaiting our arrival one day.

This is beautiful and describes her as I remember her. Although I hadn't seen her in many years, I always liked her. My sympathies to the family. Lois (Faith) Gant

Love you mom. I already miss you tremendously though it eases my heart to know you are with dad now and he has been waiting for you. As you look down upon us from heaven, know how much we appreciate the wonderful, caring mom and grandma you were. We will see you again someday and dad can make Chipped Beef Gravy for breakfast and you can make the fried chicken for dinner. I love you both so much.

God decided it was time to reunite Aunt Monk with Uncle Robert, Mom, Dad and John. They are now enjoying being all together again. Bobby, Lisa and Wayne our prayers are with you through this sad time. Aunt Monk has not left you. She will be walking beside you and be there to love and protect you until you are together once again. Don't be sad. Heaven is where life begins. Love you always...Cathy, Josh and Chuck

I have been so blessed to have you as my Aunt. You were always there for our family. You were a wonderful sister to my mother. Helping mom to care for us kids. Thoughtful things such as: calling us kids every morning at 6:00 a.m. for us kids to get up for school because mom was already at work; hemming my clothes that you & mom would buy me from yard sales to only have to re-hem the same clothes because I loaned them to my friends who let the hem out. (of course, you told me not to loan them again...) ; We loved the jar of oatmeal cookies (large pickle jar!) you baked us every year at Christmas. Mom never got any, so one year you baked the kids a jar and mom a jar. Mom didn't get many from her jar either, but us kids thought it was great we had two jars. We got in trouble... but worth it..I will always remember many things like.... How straight forward you were. If you had something to say, you said it.; How you liked reminding me of how bad I was as a teenager; How surprised you were to see me grow up to be a wonderful mother; and how you laughed when I told you I was canning from my garden: I heard more then once "Missy, I love you, but you are wrong". As a child, I didn't just try to do things without my mom finding out. I also, had you to answer to you. I hated to answer to you... but now I know you were molding me to be the person I am today. I hope everyone has a "Aunt Monk" that shows them love, care, and tells them like it is when they need to hear it. Aunt Monk, thanks for your time, love, & support. Missie Lamma
