Dear Ann: It's been many years since we've spoken or seen each other but I received a notice from WP about the passing of Pete. I have many nice memories of time spent with you both. I hope your grief at losing Pete will soon pass and that you'll have peace in your heart. My condolences to you and the children. May he rest in peace.Sincerely,Lorna Malooley

My sincere condolences to the Verfurth Family upon hearing about the passing of Jan E. "Pete" Verfurth. I am truly sorry for your loss, he will be missed and never forgotten. He was an extraordinary man who was truly an officer and a gentleman whom also enjoyed a good story ending with his hearty laugh and twinkle in his eyes. His kindness and generosity was admired. I consider myself lucky to have known him.May the family take comfort of memories of happier times during this sorrowful time and help bring peace. God rest his soul.
