Dear Dinah and Family, I am so sorry. You began to lose Austin too many years ago. I think of him as the active president of the Treebroke Association, trying to keep it solvent. And I think of him as the family man who married into your big and varied family, eating on the patio with your daughter when she lived next to me. Austin always had the big smile like I see on this page. I'm sending you a virtual hug and hope you can have the service in real time as you plan. Love, Billye

What a real gentleman (gentle man) and a great supporter of Little League back when it was born in a simpler, 50s Vienna. I am pretty sure he was the first adult I ever called by his first name. My father would be so sad to know about his death. Dinah, you always were and will be a goddess. -- Terry Dale
