This is Reginald Sherman, Otis Moore's grandson. I remember meeting Glandwood many years ago. I were filming a documentary about my grandfather when we met. We had spent all day together talking about how it was for them growing up. Uncle Glandwood was a kind and nice man. I wish had would had spent more time with him to learn more about my family history. Otis and Glandwood will be truly missed!

I was so sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Rev. Moore was a wonderful speaker in the House of the Lord. He was a very persistent and encouraging pastor and uplifted everybody he met. No one was a stranger to him. May God give you peace and joy in the upcoming days ahead. With deepest sympathy, Page Lee Weadon and Family Purcellville, VA

Brenda and family: I will always cherish the memories and wonderful blessed times shared with your parents. Glandwood and WP (the late William Preston Gardner) were like brothers. They had a deep abiding love for each other; both loving their wives; their families and their faith in God. Moving to Leesburg was the perfect decision made. Now they both can continue to enjoy each other among families and friends; and enjoy the peace and happiness being in the Kingdom. My Kimberly and I offer our love, prayers and sympathies to the entire family. Also our prayers to the love of his life; his surviving wife Evelyn, your Mother. Take comfort in knowing that your Father is in a better place. No more worries and worldly cares, but peace, blessed peace. Sincerely, Your Aunt Gloria and girlfriend forever more, Kimberly Annette Gloria White Gardner

Mr. Moore: I know that your family and friends will miss you dearly. In my association with you, I remember you were such a humble and kind man. This goes true for your family as well. As you also leave behind a beautiful, loving and caring wife, also my friend, your daughter (Mrs. Brenda Hearn) of whom I love dearly. May you RIP sir. God has received a great warrior to add to his flock. My sorrowful condolences, Erma Metcalf Shelley
