Paul Heywood Johnson left the troubles of the world behind and entered into eternal rest on Saturday, June 27, 2020 at the age of 87.

Heywood, as he was affectionately known by many, was born on July 29, 1932 to the late Paul Franklin Johnson and Anna Isabel Carpenter Johnson in Loudoun County Virginia. He spent most of his life on Sycolin Road before moving into the town of Leesburg.

Heywood was united in marriage on January 29, 1958 to the late Gladys Barbara Young Johnson. Heywood and Gladys celebrated 57 years together.

He worked tirelessly for over 20 years at the Xerox Training Center for Aramark until his retirement.

He was a dedicated and devoted servant at First Baptist Church Sycoline, serving as Chairman of the Deacon Board until the decline of his health. Page Lee Weadon lit a candle in honor of Paul.

I was sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. He was a Deacon of the First Baptist Church Sycolin, and was very involved in the teachings of the Bible. He was a very caring man, and uplifted everyone he met through all church and family gatherings. May God get you through the coming weeks, and give you encouragement and peace to carry on. With deepest sympathy, Page Lee Weadon and Family Purcellville, VA
