Mary was part of my life since I was ten years old. I loved her dearly, admired her unfailing kindness, and craved being around her. She brought out the best in all of us. It says a lot about a person when, at 83, everyone who knew her says she's been taken from us way too soon. I miss her.

I had been blessed to have Mary as my sister. She was a sincere and loving lady who loved her children and siblings beyond measure. Her life was exciting having traveled with her husband Vincent always by her side. They are together now in Heaven and know they are looking down on us and smiling. Love you Mary and miss you much....till we meet again.
