Many prayers of comfort to you Jane at this time Bobby was a special neighbor and friend to Penny and I after we moved into your Moms farm next door I looked forward to each spring getting the black angus and spending time with Bobby watching them grow. I remember the year I decided to get Charle steers and he looked at me like 'are you sure about that'. I never got them again after that disaster We never had to worry about our place when we were gone as he knew more about it than we did and he always watched over it for us.
