Vincent Aloysius Eagan

JAN 28, 1928 - SEP 20, 2012

VINCENT ALOYSIUS EAGAN, 84, passed away on Thursday, September 20th 2012 in Lansdowne, Virginia. Mr. Eagan was born January 28th 1928 in Far Rockaway, NY to the late Dr. Vincent A. Eagan and Marion O'Shea Eagan.

He grew up in Far Rockaway and loved the beach where he worked as a lifeguard for New York City and for beach clubs along the peninsula. He enlisted in the Army in 1946 which was at the end of WWII serving in Japan. He received an Honorable Discharge in 1948 and attended Columbia University.

He transferred to the University of Pennsylvania where he received a BA and MA in Far Eastern Area Studies graduating in 1955. He was in the Naval Reserves where he achieved the rank of LCDR. Mr. Eagan worked with Naval Investigative Service as a Special Agent, the U.S. Customs Service and the Drug Enforcement Administration.

During his 32 years with the federal government he was able to travel the world - living in Japan, Mexico, El Paso, Texas, and Thailand. After retiring, he accompanied his wife Mary to Austria, Sweden and Germany. In 2004, they returned to their home in Reston, Virginia where they remained until 2007 when they relocated to Lansdowne, Virginia.

Mr. Eagan loved traveling, listening to classical music, animals, reading, sailing and scuba diving. He had a wonderful sense of humor and enjoyed meeting new people. Mr. Eagan is survived by his beloved wife of 55 years: Mary Ann Eagan; three daughters: Jeanne, Sue, and Kim; a sister: Jane; close nieces and nephews: Janie, Herb, Jr. (deceased), Bobby, Nancy, Beth, Julie and Michelle; five grandchildren: Chelsea, Morganne, Delaney, Kameryn and Hayley; brother-in-law John and two sisters-in-law Laura and Kathy; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Graveside services will be held at a later date in Arlington National Cemetery with military honors. Memorial contributions may be made to a charity of your choice or to one of the following: Northwest Parkinson's Foundation, 400 Mercer Street, Suite 504, Seattle, WA 98109-

I worked with Vince in Bangkok and in DEAHQ many years ago. He was always such a gentleman who took time for human interaction and getting to know his co-workers. Vince and his lovely wife Mary were truly one of DEA's nicest couples. My sincere condolences to the Eagan family and may Vince enjoy eternal peace. Rich LaMagna

Vince and Mary have been special friends at Riverview and we have shared many times seated together at Bingo. Vince had a great sense of humor and Mary was a devoted caregiver during his long illness. We will miss Vince and hope that we will see Mary often in the future. Blessings and Love, Betty and Dean
