Norma, We were saddened to read of your Dad's passing in the paper. We always looked forward to sitting with your Mom and Dad at McDonald's in Ashburn. That was before she passed away. With the COVID and other things, it has been some time since we last went into McDonald's, We always look for you when we get a chance to drive thru, but have not seen you recently. He will be missed in our community and was always good for stories about trains over his career. I had the pleasure of chatting with him occasionally on his family's beautiful front porch. Whenever I hear a locomotive's horn I will think of him.

Rest In Peace good sir. Your daughters will be loved and cared for in your absence. Enjoy being reunited with your wife and family. If you find divine power in heaven, please find a way to help the offense of your beloved Steelers. Wave your terrible towel with Myron Cope. You have the best seat in the house now. See you on the other side someday.
