Barbara Ann Cannon Kaylor

DEC 24, 1932 - JAN 6, 2022

Barbara Cannon Kaylor passed away peacefully on January 6, 2022 at her home in Leesburg, Virginia. She was born in Grafton, Taylor County, West, Virginia, on Christmas Eve 1932, the sixth child of William Patrick & Mary Grinnan Cannon.

Barbara attended & graduated from Rowlesburg High School in Rowlesburg, West Virginia. After graduation she met & married Robert Kaylor, Sr. Their marriage took place at Saint Philomena's Catholic Church in Rowlesburg, West Virginia.

Soon after she and Robert were married, they moved to Loudoun County, Virginia and started their family.

They built their home in Prospect Hills, in Leesburg, more than 60 years ago. During those years, Barbara worked for Woodward and Lothrop at Seven Corners, C&P Telephone Company and for several doctors in Leesburg, while raising their family of 5 children. She and Robert were married for 44 years.

Barbara volunteered with PTA, LARC, the Loudoun Women's Club, and St John's Catholic Church of Leesburg. One of the volunteer projects closest to her heart was the bond issue and her volunteer work on the Leesburg Senior Center, at North Street. Together with her committee, they walked in parades, collected signatures and supported a bond issue to get the funds needed for the building's rehab. She and her committee worked with the town and architect to give input during the restructuring of the former school building (where 3 of her 5 children had attended elementary school).

Barbara is survived by her daughter, Theresa Kaylor Whitcomb of Round Hill, Michael & Diane Kaylor of Annandale, Robert Kaylor, Jr of Sterling, and Joseph Kaylor and Grace of Berryville. She was predeceased by her husband Robert Kaylor, Sr and her daughter Mary Kaylor Hurst.

I have wonderful memories of spending time with the Kaylor family. So many good times with this fun loving, caring family. I will especially cherish memories of holidays, playing cards, and going to yard sales with Mrs, Kaylor, who asked me to call her Barb. She was one of the girls. My heart breaks for their loss. My love and condolences to Theresa, Mike, Bobby, Joe and their families. May she rest in peace.

I am so very sorry to hear of your mom's passing. She was an amazing woman and always so kind to me as a child, and as an adult. Your mom also kept an eye out for my mom. A year before my mom passed, I received a call from Life Alert at 11pm that mom's beeper went off. When I arrived at mom's, your mom was there calming my mom down. A beautiful neighbor and soul. I will miss her. My sincerest condolences to Theresa, Mike, Bob and Joe, and their families.
