JONATHAN CORIE HALE

OCT 12, 1958 - FEB 11, 2022

HALE Jonathan Corie
Jonathan Corie Hale passed away on Friday, February 11, 2022 at the age of 63 years. Corie was a very strong-willed man but had been battling congestive heart failure and insomnia for some time; he is now at peace.

Born in Worcester, Massachusetts on October 12, 1958 to Priscilla Alden Ordway and the late Corie Edgar Hale, Jr., Corie is survived by his mother, Priscilla A. Ordway; three sisters: Deborah A. Hale, Lydia A. Schmierer (Keith Schmierer) and Mary “Molly” J. Reid (Joseph Reid); three nieces: Jessica A. Larsen, Makela E. Reid and Charlotte K. Reid; and one nephew, Joseph H. Larsen. In addition, as the late Sherman Ordway, Corie’s beloved maternal grandfather used to say “there are cousins by the dozens,” now scattered from New England to California.

Corie loved the Washington, D.C. area where he returned to live after attending Virginia Tech. He completed his bachelor’s degree in business and then his Master of Business Administration at George Mason University, accomplishing both while working a full-time job in the telecommunications industry. Corie then worked as an IT contractor for the majority of his career, with one of his most notable assignments serving as a network specialist for the Department of Justice in Washington, D.C.

Corie was a man of many talents including drawing, writing poetry, cartooning, and especially participating in and watching sports. He was known for his love for basketball, baseball and running, and in fact remembered the day he went running and was joined by a deer that then kept pace with him.

His musical passion was classic rock, but he was just as happy conversing with those close to him about any number of philosophical viewpoints spanning sports, religion, politics, comedy and the arts. Corie’s outrageous sense of humor, energetic outlook on life and good deeds as a loyal and generous son, brother, uncle, cousin, friend and neighbor will be missed by all.

Lydia A Schmierer lit a candle in honor of JONATHAN.

My big brother, Corie was so giving. In his honor...please reach out to someone you know and make their day a bit easier. Corie would randomly send pizza for a neighbor's family dinner, favorite soup/bread mixes to close friends and send unexpected treats to those he cared for. Or, honor his memory and enjoy a game of basketball or baseball with friends or commit to a Nationals or Redskins Game 2022. Yes, REDSKINS FOREVER-AMEN! Love you Corie- Lydia
