Mr. Charles Evans Everhart, Sr. , age 84, a life-long resident of Lovettsville, VA, passed away on Sunday, October 14, 2012. One of five children, he was born on April 24, 1928, to the late Charles Leonard Everhart and the late Mary Melva Evans Everhart. He owned and operated C. E. Everhart Livestock Hauling for over 60 years. His greatest passion was transporting livestock for his loyal customers to various stockyards, attending cattle sales, and delivering livestock all over the U.S. His motto was "day or night, rain or shine, he would get the job done." He also enjoyed transporting 4H livestock from the Loudoun County Fair to various butcher shops and stockyards.

He graduated from the Lovettsville High School, a life-long member of the New Jerusalem Lutheran Church, and a member of the Blue Ridge Cattlemen's Association. Charles was predeceased by his beloved wife and trucking companion, Garnetta, in 2000, and his brothers, Leslie "Kingfish" Everhart, Newton Bowers Everhart, Walter Coolidge Everhart, and Baby Mervin E. Everhart. He leaves to cherish his memory two daughters, Linda D. Everhart of Lovettsville, Ruthlee (Milton) Holler of Shepherdstown , WV, and son Charles E. (Donna) Everhart, Jr. of Knoxville, MD. He is also survived by his six grandchildren, Bryan (Kristi) Holler, Amy Holler, Jonathan Holler, Katherine (Brandon) Holler-Isenhardt, and Victoria Holler, and Ally Everhart; and three great grandchildren Christopher Ferguson, Colton and Zachary Holler.

The family will receive friends on Friday, October 19, from 6-9 p.m. at the Loudoun Funeral Chapel, 158 Catoctin Circle, SE, Leesburg, VA 20175. Funeral services will be held on Saturday, October 20, 2012, at 11 am at New Jerusalem Lutheran Church, on 12942 Lutheran Church Road, Lovettsville, VA 20180. Interment will follow in the Lovettsville Union Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made in Mr. Everhart's memory to a charity of the sender's choice.

I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Charlie, what a terrific man he was, always smiling and happy to see a friend, i have known Charlie for many years through the cattle world, Charlie was always there at the 4H fairs, the breed sales and the livestock yards, you never had to worry about him taking the best of care when he transported your animals, thoughts and prayers to his family

Linda, Ruthlee and Charlie Jr. Nothing anyone can say or do right now can take the pain away and the feeling of loss your entire family is experiencing. Your Dad was a good man that always would offer that helping hand to anyone that needed a lift, or just some sound advise from his wealth of knowledge about common sense things we all struggle with. I never ran into your Dad that he wasn't asking about others, or how our family was doing. He truly was a caring man that will be truly missed. If our family can help with anything, please let us know. We are keeping your family in our prayers.

Linda, Ruthlee, and your brother, I have recently lost my Dad (James Reed in April this year) and I can tell you from my heart how sorry I am for your loss.. I remember so long ago spending nights at your home and attending schools together. I remember when your Dad would come pick up cattle at our farm like he did for many of the farmers in Lovettsville. Heaven is crowded with their generation. Bless you all, In Christian Love, Nancy Reed Large

Dear Linda, Ruthlee, and Charlie Jr.: Your Dad will surely be missed by many. What a delightful man he was. I always enjoyed being around him because of his genuine warmth and kindness. May I add: God saw you getting tired, When a cure was not to be. So He wrapped his arms around you, and whispered, "Come to me". You didn't deserve what you went through, So He gave you rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He only takes the best. And when you were sleeping, So peaceful and free from pain I could not wish you back To suffer that again.

As products of Lovettsville, I remember Charles and Walter. Charles told me at the last alumni banquet that my mother, Evelyn George, was a "true lady". Now I can return the compliment. Charles, you were a true gentleman. A pillar of the community who will not be easily be replaced! Rest in peace. William George
