I remember when last Thanksgiving Travis and Alisha brought their favorite pies to our family dinner. One pie jar was lighter with a rattling sound. I opened it and there inside of the pie dish was the positive pregnancy test results. The family was elated. Travis and Alisha had just introduced the family to baby Travis Reginal Jr.! This was priceless and amazing. We erupted with cheers and congratulations and praise to God almighty. For 36 months Travis Reginal Jr. graced us with his presence inside his mummy's womb. He gave us a lot of love, every movement, every moment. And we loved him back. Travis and Alisha - amazing parents. And although Travis Jr. is gone too soon, we know he is with Jesus in heaven, and that brightens our day. We will meet him again. His memory will live on in our hearts and our legacy. God of the mountain is God of the valley - and God is still good!

As we approach this Thanksgiving season, there is a somberness about it because last Thanksgiving we were introduced to an amazing new life that became a part of our family. Last year's Thanksgiving was different! Travis Reginal Jr. was in his mother's womb and welcomed to our family. This year, although Travis Reginal Jr. will not be with us in person, he will remain etched in our hearts and we will be thankful for the privilege we had of experiencing his growth in the womb and the love and joy he gave us and the love we were able to give him. Rest In Peace Travis Jr.. Love from Grandma Beverley and the entire Jordan family.
