Our hearts are broken over the loss of our nephew Matt. We lost a special person far too soon. Matt was a wonderful young man, so full of life and promise. He was a gentle man and enjoyed a good pun. He was a great person to be around. Above all, Matt was a kind and loving father. Without a doubt, he will be watching over his family. To Gary, Rhea, Trinity, Connie and Spencer, we offer our heartfelt condolences. "Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal." Love, Kathy & Gary
