Mary Wiley was a fine woman. Smart, caring, honest and very brave. Also funny, and above all, giving. She brightened my childhood and I felt safe and loved in her presence. I will never forget Mary, forever in my heart.

Mrs. Mary Wiley was one of the most prominent and influential women in Loudoun County. She was well respected and known by many. She was kind, funny, smart, and so much more. I was blessed to be in her company many times. We always had a good time. I love and miss you Ms Mary. May your soul continue to Rest In Peace.
