Nobu Michimata Hollar

OCT 13, 1935 - SEP 29, 2022

Nobu Michimata Hollar, 86 of Ashburn, Virginia, passed away peacefully on Thursday, September 29th, 2022.

Nobu was born on October 13th, 1935 in Hokkaido, Japan. She was the oldest daughter of the late Kota and Kiyoko Michimata.

She married her husband, Marvin Hollar, in 1956 while he was stationed in Japan during his military service in the United States Army, before later returning with their family to Ohio.

Nobu was a loving wife, mother, and grandparent. She spent over thirty five years as a server at

Tachibana restaurant in McLean, Virginia, and was an active member of the Northern Virginia Soka

Gakkai International (SGI) center, a community-based Buddhist organization that promotes peace and respect for the dignity of life.

Nobu was preceded in death by her husband of 57 years, Marvin Hollar, and her son, Edward Hollar. She is survived by her daughter, Margaret Hollar; granddaughters, Melonie Tibbs, Cecilia Marshall, Katharine

Hollar, and Alexandra Quist; and great-grandchildren, Breana Marshall, Kamryn Tibbs, Harper

Schwartz, Jack Schwartz, Ayour Alla, and Henri Quist.

Nobu will be interred with her husband at Arlington National Cemetery at a later date.
