Clare Marie Raiguel

MAR 20, 1999 - SEP 23, 2022

Clare Marie Raiguel, 23 of Aldie, Virginia and previously Collegeville, PA, passed on Friday, September 23, 2022.

Born Saturday, March 20, 1999, in suburban Philadelphia, she was the daughter of Darren and Jill Raiguel.

Clare had a passion for the arts, starting with dance, then expression through music, songwriting and performing as a drummer and bassist among other instruments. She was a talented artist as well.

During her latter teen years and after Clare graduated from Spring-Ford High School in Royersford, PA, she thoroughly enjoyed being a music teacher to children and generally helping others.

Clare is survived by her parents, sisters, Molly Raiguel and Julie Raiguel, grandparents, Bill and Sandy Raiguel, Bob and Wini Curcio, as well as many other family and friends.

A celebration of life gathering for family, friends, and coworkers is planned for Saturday, November 5th at Normandy Farm, located at 1401 Morris Road in Blue Bell, PA from 12:00 to 3:00PM.

In lieu of flowers, please consider donating to The Clarevoyant Foundation. This foundation has recently been setup in Clare's honor to create a philanthropic lasting legacy of helping others artistically inclined and exhibiting other characteristics which made Clare so special. A GoFundMe campaign is available at <https://gofund.me/6f2e3f41> or please feel free to contact Jill or Darren for additional ways to contribute.

My condolences to Clare's family and friends. I worked with her at B2R for several years. She was always a smiling, great spirited person when we would chat or simply say hello in the hallways. After looking at the artwork on her Facebook page since her passing, I realize that she had a great artist gift, as well. Missing that young lady...
