I remember Donald well. We grew up together. The Garretts were our next-door neighbors. We played outside in the summers and went to the same schools growing up. I know he will be missed.

Worked with Don for over 35 years and friends longer than that. I was honored to be there today to help lay him to rest. What a wonderful man. But rest assured that beginning next week Don will be scoping out donut shops to take to his new customs in heaven. He was the GOAT of sales. I will miss you Don. RIP my friend.

I'm a first cousin who had great fun memories of "Donny"❤️. Great memory- when my mother, his Aunt NeNe, wanted to snap a photo of my brother, Donny and me- Donny didn't want to 'pose' for the picture, so he picked up a dead bird he had found and held it up. Mother snapped the picture anyway- and it always brought a smile and a giggle to her when she saw it. We loved him.

I am Cindy Donnie's niece. My favorite memory of him is when he was stationed in Japan and sent me back a Japanese pajama set. It was red satin with black velvet trim. It had a pattern on the material but I can't remember what it was. But I loved those pajamas!

I am also a first cousin of Donny's. When the Garrett cousins got together it was always a fun time whether we were having a family reunion or fun on the Frio river. So many memories, I loved Donny.❤️

Don is a legend. I learned so much from him in such a short period of time "learning the ropes of sales" with Safeware. I cannot look at a stack of boxes of donuts without thinking of Don. Who knew donuts were the key to so many offices? Thanks for helping me navigate DC and Safeware like a pro.

I have many fond memories of Don from our time together at Safeware. I would do periodic quality system audits and I'd ask people to recite the quality policy and he used to like to start quoting the Gettysburg Address. It always gave me a laugh. He was a great salesman, and a great person. - Jessica Faulkner

My sympathies go out to his family. Most of my fond memories with Donnie go back to our childhood, when I was playing all kinds of games with him, even marbles in the dirt alongside his house. For nearly a decade too, he was my brother-in-law. He was a good kid. It is not surprising to me to see that his colleagues and family thought he was also a good man and father and grandfather. He will be missed. Curtis Johnson

I started out at Safeware Inc. as Don's customer service rep. I learned so much. I appreciated his patience with me. Not only was I new to Safeware, but I was also new to Safety. May God give the family comfort and strength during this difficult time and always. With warm regards, Karen Hamilton
