Jack was actively involved in his local community in Montgomeryville, Pennsylvania, where he raised his family. A natural-born athlete, he was an avid golfer and tennis player. Jack organized golf tournaments at PineCrest Country Club where he proudly made a hole-in-one. He led a men's tennis league for many years at Highpoint Athletic Club in nearby Chalfont, Pennsylvania. Jack was also an accomplished artist having studied oil painting with James Schucker of Bucks County, who had the second most covers on "The Saturday Evening Post" second only to Norman Rockwell.

Jack's family and friends have many fond memories of him. He loved telling jokes with his friends around the kitchen table, classic cars, road trips and Sunday drives with his family. He will always be remembered for his love of life and willingness to help others.
