Marguerite Ellen Moore

APR 23, 1933 - JUL 15, 2023

Marguerite Ellen Moore, age 90, went to be with the Lord on July 15, 2023, peacefully in her sleep.

Marguerite was preceded in death by her loving husband, Marvin K. Moore, her parents William and Mary Margaret, sisters Joanne and Patti and brother Bill and grandson David, Jr.

Marguerite leaves behind to cherish her memory, five children, Karen, Marcia, David (Sarah), Danny, Mike, three grandchildren William, Christina and Jack, two great grandchildren Jameson and Anastasia, one brother Walter (Joan), one sister Dorothy.

Marguerite was born April 23, 1933, in Washington DC. She graduated from Roosevelt High School. She worked for the weather bureau in the payroll department. She sang in the choir of the Billy Graham Crusade for one week when they came to DC.

Marguerite loved attending Fourth Presbyterian Church for many years where she taught Sunday School and sang in the choir. A friend from church introduced her to her future husband as MM meet MM. They went to Hawaii for their honeymoon and enjoyed several trips back over the years. She was secretary to the minister of Fourth Presbyterian Church until starting a family. Her five children were blessed to have her as their mother. Later in life she went to work as a salesperson and then a manager for Jordan Kitts Music. This led to winning trips to various places around the world. She and Marvin retired to Naples, Florida, but decided to move back here after a couple years to be close to family again. They lived in Ashburn, VA. Marguerite loved being with her family and friends.

Marguerite loved the Lord and enjoyed sharing her faith with others. She loved birds, flowers, old movies, Holidays and sharing a good laugh. She was a wonderful cook, and many have enjoyed such favorites as potato salad, almond cake, candy cane cookies, mommy Christmas bread, and a classic grilled cheese sandwich.

Besides being a beautiful person the love she had for her family was immeasurable. I still have a recipe she gave me in the 70's for candy cane Christmas cookies. I am glad she signed it and every Christmas since she and her family are with us. She was as sweet as these cookies! ❤️🍪
