MAY 11, 1953 - DEC 14, 2012

Sandra Gayle Roseberry, 59, a long time resident of Leesburg, passed away 14 December 2012, following a courageous battle with pancreatic cancer. So many memories. She was my best friend, and confidant, and a wonderful sister. We had so many good times together, and there is not a day that goes by that something I have reminds me of her. We are coming up on 1 year, and this time last year we were at the PA house decorating the Christmas tree . I know she is looking down on us and smiling.Darlene Kightlinger

Many times, Sandra and I were the only ones sitting on a Sunday afternoon at GS Recognition Meetings. As such, she and I would talk and share our lives. Sandra was a special person, who was loved by many and who loved so many. She will be missed very much.

Heal me Lord I am a broken man riddled with emotion and sorrow for I have lost my beloved wife. My body aches for - the sound of her voice- the touch of her hand- the sight of her face it can't be true; she can't be gone. Will this nightmare never end? Wasn't it only yesterday that we wed? Wasn't it only yesterday that we were young and in love. Save me dear Lord, take me to see her soon, end my sorrow. Heal me Lord.

My dear friend David and lovely, lovely daughters Marlene and Brooke. Over this past 10 months since Sandra's diagnosis I have longed to call you and talk to you about this dreadful disease; however, I did not want to reopen wounds you suffered so recently. Although I grieved with you at Joy's death, I now more fully understand the true extent of the pain and suffering you endured. I hope we can get together someday and reminisce about the happier days, which I was so keenly reminded of while preparing photos for Sandra's tribute. Thank you for your love and support; my love to you too.

Sandra was an angel sent from heaven to us for a brief moment of time. She left us all with a lesson in how to love and help our neighbors. She was the Godmother of our son.Of the many babies and children she took care of so other parents could work. We were fortunate to have here babysit our daughter and son.28 years ago I met Sandra-she lived 3 doors down from us. I took our 2 yr old daughter for a walk down and meet her and the kids that I heard outside.She introduced herself as Sandra and corrected me not once but twice when I called her Sandra then Sandy! Anyways after seeing her for a bit and our daughter playing with her kids I asked if she would babysit . She hadn't done it before but said yes. I remembered she charged $!.00 an hour.WOW Anyway She was the best and by the way David was no slouch-we would pick up Courtney late in the evening and there was david in his chair in the livingroom studying for school while Kenny and Courtney were asleep.WE love you and will be greatly missed-you have impacted so many. Go with God in peace everafter.Love-Sheila,Ames, Courtney and Jeremy
