Say not in grief 'she is no more,' but live in thankfulness she was. Nancy was a very unique person. I have known her since I was born, as our mothers were good friends and I was born a few months after Nancy. I feel honored to have known her. I am thankful for the small things I have to remember her by...a portrait of me she made in chalk many years ago, several necklaces she made with precious stones, the sometimes odd things she would send at Christmastime....which were probably meant for my children but I enjoyed them also. Be at peace Nancy.,I am glad you suffer no more.
