Oh, Joylyn, so sorry to hear of Roland's passing. Roland was always happy to have a good conversation whenever I saw him and that dry humor and twinkle in his eye will always be remembered. Oh how he loved you and was so very proud of you and his grandchildren! Gosh, it just seems like yesterday that you two were biking all over the Loudoun together ❤️ Sending all my love your way... and a big hug. Pat Fletcher

'Mr. H' was my second father. There are too many memories to count between discussing guns, cars, and trying to teach the teenage girls that surrounded him the ways of the world. He was a true family man and gentleman. He will be forever in my heart. - Jennifer Gore

Joylyn and family.... you all have my deepest sympathy. I was so so sorry to hear of Roland's passing. He truly was one of a kind a true gentleman. I loved working with him at TAMKO he always made me laugh with a story. He loved talking about you and the children and showing me pictures every time he came in the office. He enjoyed taking care of the pup when you all traveled and taking her to Chick-fil-A for a chicken sandwich. There is so much more I could say about your dad. I know he is at peace now and with your mom the love of his life. Know that I am thinking of you all... sending prayers.....Tammy Weinrich

Joylyn, I'm so sorry for the loss of your father. Your father was very special to my father Uncle George and Aunt Sara . He was the ring bearer in their wedding. I also thought he was so handsome, just like his other brothers. I was always happy to see him when I was younger. My mom was always happy to see him and she appreciated when he came to her 80 th and 90th birthday parties. How fortunate and blessed your were to have a great Dad and Mother. I personally thought your Mom was funny too! Your cousin, Marsha Hannahs Brooks

Joylyn and family.... A life well lived.... I shared many laughs with Roland over the years at TAMKO. Was thinking of him just last week. He always had a cheerful smile and something funny to say.... a kind, genuine, and strong man who suffered two broken hearts but kept moving forward. I always enjoyed that Roland was not one of those guys who you wondered what he was thinking... he wore his heart on his sleeve and wasn't afraid to let you know that... a man of men! Roland loved his family passionately and spoke of them often. He leaves an indelible imprint to those that knew and loved him. He will continue to be missed by his co-workers. The world feels a little sadder this morning. Prayers...
