Dan was not only an amazing person to work with, but an all-around inspirational person in general. Always quick with a joke to brighten someone's day, easy with a laugh or a smile or hug, his presence lifted people's spirits every day and we miss him so much already. We can all aspire to be more selfless and reach out to our fellow man the way Dan did. Thank you so much to his family for sharing his wonderful spirit with his RA family 8+ hours a day for so many years. Our hearts are with you all.

He did such wonderful things for the community of Reston and beyond. Thanks Dan for all that you taught us, all the times you made us laugh or came to the rescue, for the things you built, the music you played, and how much you cared about doing things right and treating people with compassion and respect. Dan was a ture sold out soldier for the Lord; he loved Jesus and wanted all around him to know his Jesus. Dan loved working in the vine yard, holding up the banner, telling his testimony and proclaiming the gospel of the Lord. To Dan's family, Please accept my expression of sympathy and condolence in the transition of your loved one to the next stage of life. While your lives will never be the same without him, take comfort in knowing that Dan is now free of pain and suffering and enjoying life in a place so glorious we can't even imagine it! I can't believe one of my very best friends has moved on. We shared many great times together from the age of about 10 to 20. All the things that I read here about Dan don't surprise me too much because he was pretty unique and he sure seems to have left quite an impression on many people! I remember his sister Joyce singing Elton John's "Daniel my brother..." just to drive him crazy. I remember going to the Jersey shore and Dan was the only one willing to go in the water because it was so cold, though he did come out blue. I lost track of Dan for many years but this news sure touches my heart. To Dan's wife Edna and his children just know that Dan was a great guy when he was 13 as well as when he was 56. I'm honored to have known him. Rich Sarafian Friend from Upper Darby, PA
