Maebel loved and accepted me as if she were my own grandmother. Every time I visited her at her home or at her new nursing home, she expressed the kindness and love of Jesus. I am grateful for Maebel. Love, Pastor Daniel Eichelberger, Providence Baptist Church.

Walter, Sylvia, And Marcy Hays posted:

Mabel was a "Living Epistle" of Jesus Christ having an abundance of agape love that encouraged and warmed the hearts of everyone she met. She--and her family--did this for the Hays family for 43 years, starting in August 1980 when we joined Providence Baptist Church, and continuing until mid-November 2023--when we visited on the phone. We will see her in Heaven.

Maebel--Mrs. Stover in my younger years--was like a second mother to me! She and my mom (Joyce Norton) were the best of friends and kept their friendship going until my mom passed away in January 2020! We all grew up in Dunn Loring, VA and have so many wonderful memories! I miss you Maebel, but I hope you and Mom are enjoying being together again! My love and sympathy to all of the Stover family. ❤️ ❤️
