Erick & Jennifer, My heart is deeply saddened with your loss. Your mom was a precious jewel, unlike any other. Her friendship with my mother spanned decades and many miles between them. So many memories flooded my mind this afternoon after I spoke with you.....the one that made me laugh is of them throwing orange juice and Pepsi at each other - by the glass full! She taught you many things about life, gave you many words of wisdom yet her greatest legacy by far is Jesus. I know she prayed for you two, without ceasing. I am so grateful that all of you were together again in the last several years. What an amazing blessing. Now she and my Mom are dancing the streets of gold together, one on each side of Jesus. I will be praying for you in the days, weeks and months to come. Amy (Mohr) Renkiewicz
