Matthew "Matt" Stewart Price

SEP 17, 1976 - DEC 10, 2023

Matthew “Matt” Stewart Price, 47, passed away suddenly on Sunday, December 10, 2023. He will forever remain in our hearts as our beloved husband, father, son, brother, and friend. Matt was in the prime of his life and blessed the lives of all who had the pleasure of knowing him. His loss leaves an irreplaceable void for those who knew and loved him most.

Matt is the oldest son of Barbara Ann ([nee Stewart] deceased) and Kelly Roy Price and brother to Jonathan Price. Matt was born on September 17, 1976, in Ann Arbor, Michigan. He spent his childhood and youth in nearby Brighton. He loved those he grew up with and always had a fondness for Michigan.

One of the things that we loved about Matt was how he knew something about everything. His educational journey took him to Wayne State University where he earned a Bachelor of Arts in Applied Communications, Public Relations, and Advertising. Matt’s intellect was based on more than academic success. He was a voracious reader and student of the world and loved to answer hard questions from his beloved family. But Matt was so much more than smart. Those who know him best say he is charismatic, cool, fun, nerdy, and goofy.

Matt took a brief, but important, pause from his education when he decided to serve a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints in Los Angeles, California. It was here that he developed a love of the Spanish language, real street tacos, the people he served, and the gospel of Jesus Christ. As a missionary he was as comfortable meeting with the elites of LA as he was talking about God to gang members on the street. Matt’s ability to connect with anyone is one of his most endearing traits. To know Matt was to love him.

After his mission his attention turned to an equally important journey: finding the love of his life. He met his wife Mary at church and bonded over their mutual love of the Spanish language, but it was his sense of humor and understated charm that won Mary’s heart. Together, they forged a relationship that was sealed for time and all eternity in the Detroit, Michigan Temple in 2006.

Matthew "Matt" Stewart Price

Their marriage was based on everything good in the world and featured a healthy balance of fun, laughter, family time, and faith. Although Matt's passing separates them in this mortal life, their combined hope and faith in the eternal nature of marriage ensures their love will continue forever.

Matt and Mary together brought five amazing children into the world: Ruby (15), Belle (14), George (11), Hannah (10) and Louisa (2). The happiness, comfort, and well-being of their children has always been a top priority for Matt. He was an energetic father, and his children were everything to him. As a result, all his free time, energy, and resources were devoted to them. He knew the importance of being a great father and made the sacrifices necessary to create light, laughter, and levity in their lives. Matt gave his family every available minute and could be found reading, playing, making up funny names, going on rides, going to the park, tucking them in at night, rolling around on the floor, or playing games. We will miss him more than any words can convey.

Matt was a diligent, intelligent, hard worker. While his work did not occupy his whole life, he was able to find the right balance and was successful at all he did professionally. His career was varied and included time in different advertising agencies, a great stretch at Volkswagen in Digital Marketing, and most recently as a Cyber Security Product Manager at Wells Fargo. He was seen as a confident, forward-thinking, and generous colleague. Matt was trusted and beloved by all he worked with and will be missed.

As is often the case, Matt's passing was completely unexpected. He leaves behind a bereft family who will grieve his passing and long for their reunion. The family is united in their belief that this life is not the end. We know Matt continues to live and he is cheering and working for us on the other side of the veil. While we will miss him and will never heal completely, we take comfort in the knowledge and faith in Jesus Christ. Because Christ lives, we will live again too. We look forward to the day when we will be together again.

A special family viewing will be held on Sunday Dec 17, 2023 at the Loudoun Funeral Chapel in Leesburg, Va. Matt's family would be honored to have friends and family attend his viewing and Funeral Services on Monday December 18, 2023 starting at 10am for the viewing and 11 for the funeral.

I knew Matt mostly as a youth and young adult. He was a good, kind young man. He usually had a smile on his face and a positive attitude. He also was known for his good sense of humor. I am sure these positive traits served him well with his work and family. He will be very missed.

Matt is my brother in law. He was always on the go, taking care of his family, working hard and being friendly while doing all of the things that were important to him. I'm sorry that he won't be able to tuck his sweet children into bed anymore. I know they will miss their dad. We love you Matt!

I am a neighbor and want to say, it is a joy to watch Matt and Mary's children play outside. The children are so cordial and happy. I would walk over just to have conversation and see Matt and Mary engage with their children and all the neighbors. I would see Matt walk their dog and go on walks with his children he was always smiling. In the summer time Matt was with the children walking to the swimming pool and just enjoying the day. Matt, I will miss saying "hello" to you as you would pass my house on one of your walks with the dog or walking with your beautiful children. You will be missed by all of us. Christa Roan

Matt, Mark and family were wonderful. Our visits always made me a happier person.

We have been blessed over the last several years to know Matt, Mary and their beautiful family. It has been a privilege and a joy. When I shared the sad and shocking news of Matt's passing to Matt's boss, his high praise of Matt not only as an employee but as a person were a perfect description to anyone who knew Matt. In a text to me he said, "Matt always told me, 'I've got your back', and delivered on everything he said he would." He went onto say, "Hopefully through this tragedy we can show Mary and family that we've got their back." I will never be able to give back all the time, energy, and effort Matt gave to his family, his friends, his church, or his work. Thank you, Matt for all you did and all you were to so many. I know you will continue to watch over your seet family! ❤️
