Kenneth Ray Craddock Sr.

NOV 9, 1940 - DEC 8, 2023

Kenneth Ray Craddock, Sr. of Springfield, VA, a dedicated father, family man, and public servant, departed this life on December 8th, 2023, at the age of 83.

He is survived by his children, Margaret Jezior (Stan) of Ashburn, VA, Katherine Calloway of Reston, VA, Kenneth R. Craddock, Jr. (Kathryn) of Leesburg, VA, grandsons Wyatt and Garrett Perrin, Charles Calloway, Jonathan and Joseph Isquith, his youngest brother Phillip Craddock, Sr. (Sharon) of Pinetops, NC, Sister-in-Law Jennifer Van Landingham (Michael) of Leesburg, VA, along with many loved nieces and nephews. He is preceded in death by his parents Ira and Margaret Craddock as well as his brothers Richard Craddock and Michael Craddock.

After service in the U.S. Navy, Mr. Craddock enjoyed a successful career as an Architect that spanned both private and public sectors including 28 years of distinguished service for the General Services Administration. Among his many roles and duties over the years, Mr. Craddock was the direct liaison for all design and construction projects for the White House complex, Old and New Executive Office Buildings, President's Guest House (Blair-Lee) and the Winder Building. Additionally, Mr. Craddock was the official liaison to the Executive Protection Service and Secret Service for coordinating security measures for the Presidents' and Vice Presidents' personal residences. His service spanned seven administrations from President Johnson to President Clinton. Mr. Craddock retired from the Federal Government in 1994.

Mr. Craddock was a lifelong supporter of many charities with special emphasis on the welfare and protection of animals. In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to the Humane Society of Fairfax County or the ASPCA.
