First time I met Pradeep was just after Pranavi was born. The love and pride he had for having his daughter was so precious. Again I saw the same when he was taking picture of her during dance recital and again on her 16th birthday. Even though he is my dearest friend Archana's husband, every time I have seen him as a great father to his children. The kind of father whose world revolves around his children. Rest in peace and guide my friend and your kids from above always which I know you will.

I met Pradeep at College Park, Maryland almost 30 years ago! What I remember most fondly about him is, his jovial/humorous nature! When he's around, the room used to be filled with laughter! Pranavi & Anush - I, Anjan Uncle, lost my dearest Dad in 1999 and he rarely used to visit me in my dreams! Unfortunately, I lost my eldest boy, Anshul, in 2016. To my utter surprise, my Dad started visiting me in my dreams on a regular basis. Initially, I was surprised; but, later I started realizing that he has been visiting me in my dreams to comfort me. The reason that I am sharing the above is, your Dad will always be there for you - forever! Lots of love to both of you and Amma as well. Pradeep Bhai, love you brother!
