Uncle William was one of the first to teach me that family is not always by blood. I am fortunate to have had him in my life. He always treated me like family and shared his family with me, no matter how much time went by. You will be missed. Keep watch over your family. I love you.

Debi, As you know your dad and I were more than pals or even buddies. We were companion farm workers racing our tractors, sharing the Pulpit at Leesburg Presbyterian, but NEVER attempting sing together. I shall always remember those times. Bless you always, George
