So sorry to lose my dear friend. I know she suffered so much with her illness, so I'm glad she is out of pain and with the Lord she loved to much. We had many memories together. The one that bonded us was a harrowing ride from Leesburg to her house in a terrible winter storm. That was our first meeting, and we were friends from then on. I will miss you Francis. My love to her family. And my thanks to those who took such good care of her in her final days. I know you will be blessed for your service. Jill Lafrance
