Philip "Max" Maxwell Lindgren

FEB 26, 1994 - NOV 10, 2024

It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of Philip Maxwell Lindgren, known to loved ones as Max, who left this world on November 10, 2024, at the age of 30. Max was a beloved son, brother, and friend who made a lasting impact on everyone he met through his boundless creativity, kindness, and unwavering individuality.

Max was a true individualist, with a unique outlook on life. While he followed his own path with pride, he also had a sensitive, compassionate soul, one that sometimes struggled with the tension between being his unconventional self and his deep desire for connection, family, and belonging. Max's mother described him as the most non-judgmental and compassionate person she had ever known, a person whose kindness, empathy, and tolerance made everyone around him feel valued.

Max's imagination was boundless. He was a storyteller at heart, weaving immersive campaigns as a Dungeon Master in Dungeons & Dragons that drew his friends into realms of magic, mystery, and camaraderie. He was also a talented musician, gamer, and lifelong learner. His love of music and community inspired him as a teenager to host a music festival from his parents' home—a testament to his unyielding spirit and creativity. His ability to bring people together and make them feel like part of a team, party, or guild, will be missed by all who knew him.

Max will be forever loved and missed by his mother, Nadine Lindgren; his father, Phillip Lindgren; his sister, Natalie Bacenet; and his beloved cat, Riley. He will be sorely missed by his best friend; Hank Reidy, and his brother in law; Andrew Bacenet, both of whom he admired very much. He will also be fondly remembered and missed by his childhood friends and those he met along the way who had the privilege of sharing in his inquisitive spirit and limitless imagination.

In honor of Max's memory, his family requests donations to fund a bench at the park where he found peace on his daily walks, so that his presence may continue to bring comfort to those who loved him.
