Adam Brown

MAR 8, 1977 - OCT 6, 2025

ADAM BROWN, 48, of Broadlands, Virginia, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, October 6, 2025.

Adam is survived by his beloved wife, Kathryn, and their cherished daughter, Olivia. He is also survived by his mother, Sherry Brown; brothers, Kevin Brown (Kim) and Corey Brown (Samantha); and his loving nieces and nephews: Caden, Landon, Avery, June, Landon, and Kinsey. He will be deeply missed by many aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. Adam was preceded in death by his father, Bennett Brown.

Born in Washington, D.C., Adam grew up in Northern Virginia, where he remained after college and built a full and meaningful life. As the proud owner of Ashburn Asphalt, he was not only a dedicated professional but also a supportive and inspiring leader to his team.

Adam was known for his quick wit, generous spirit, and the genuine warmth he brought into every room. He was a lifelong Florida Gators and Washington Redskins fan, a devoted golf enthusiast, and had a special talent for making people laugh—especially with his well-timed jokes among friends. One of his greatest joys was spending time with his daughter, especially on the golf course.

To those who knew him, Adam was a true friend—loyal, kind-hearted, and always ready with a smile. His presence made a lasting impact, and his memory will live on in the hearts of all who loved him.

Family and friends are invited to gather on Wednesday, October 15, 2025, at St. Theresa Catholic Church in Ashburn, Virginia. A viewing will begin at 9:45 a.m., followed by a Funeral Mass at 10:15 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Adam's honor to the following:

It's hard to find the right words at times like this. I'm deeply sorry for the loss of Adam. I only met him a few times, but his warmth and energy were unforgettable. He really made everyone feel welcome and it was clear how generous he was, how deeply he cared for those around him, and how much he loved his family. My heart goes out to Kathryn, his family, and friends—wishing you comfort and peace in the days ahead.

So sorry to hear that Adam has passed. He was a blessing to work with as he assisted us at St Theresa's. So many students and parishioners have Adam to thank for the wonderful asphalt courts and additional play area at St Theresa's. He was always pleasant and jovial to be around. Thank you Jesus for the time we were able to spend with Adam. Please provide comfort and consolation for Kathryn and Olivia as Adam begins his journey into eternal life. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. -Tom Balint
