Betty Neff Breeden

MAY 31, 1933 - NOV 11, 2025

BETTY NEFF BREEDEN, 92, of Bunker Hill, West Virginia passed away on November 11, 2025.

She was predeceased in death by her husband, Max Breeden, her parents Alma Sutphin Craighead (Walter), Nevin Neff (Ruby), and her brother Harry Neff.

She is survived by her sons Michael Breeden (Gale) and David Breeden (Brenda), her daughter Lisa Walter (Roy), 7 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. She is also survived by her sister, Bonnie Nickerson (Dave) and niece Christine Craighead (Mike).

Betty worked many years at Loudoun Memorial Hospital before retiring. Her love for her family kept her busy in her later years, with many visits from the grandchildren and great grandchildren. They always brought joy and pride to her heart.

The services for Betty Neff Breeden will be held privately by the family.

Please make condolences to the family online at www.LoudounFuneralChapel.com

Francine Furby posted:

Betty will be remembered for her loving, kind, and sincere welcoming heart. She would gracefully welcome me and my kids to family gatherings at the Walter home. She was a treat to be around. And a treasure to know. Prayers to the family. Love, Francine Furby and Family.
