“ Condolences to the Coates family. Well Charlie I had to write this again because something went wrong. The one thing I will always remember is that sparkle tooth and your smile. Funny how time goes by and you never see a person and they just happen to pop up and your conversation starts with "its been a long time since I've seen you " then you start talking about good things in life. Remember this and that. But I do remember the last time I saw you in Brunswick how you hadn't changed and you said with that smile "hey sweetie how are you" and I said "hey Charlie you looking all good". We chatted for a few and went on our way. We've had lots of laughs together throughout being in school and around town. Rest in peace Charlie and may you smile down upon us.

“ I have many fond memories of Charlie as I was growing up . He was always kind to me and had a listening ear when we were young adults as well. Sending prayers and much love to his mom and family.
