“ My sincere condolences to the Norris family.

Charles came into my life eight years ago when I married into a distant part of the Norris family. Uncle Charles was an elegant, dignified man who was an accomplished businessman and came from one of Leesburg's most historic families.

My favorite memories of Uncle Charles were his dry humor, infectious laugh (which was more of a quiet chuckle) and his always humorous and witty stories. Uncle Charles possessed an extraordinary sense of pride in his family. His love and commitment to his wonderful wife, Aunt Bunny, should be an example for everyone to follow. Uncle Charles smiled the most when he gave us a great, humorous story about his life with Bunny, or bragged about his son, Rob, or grandson, Charlie.

Heaven will be a better place having Uncle Chuck. However, we here on earth will miss him greatly.

“ Chuck & Bunny have been friends for over 35 yrs & business partners at Shenandoah Sash & Door along with the Paytons. We enjoyed wonderful "business" trips together with many laughs, great meals & memories. Chuck was always gracious, considerate & greeted you with a warm, sincere hug. We will miss his laugh, wit & all the qualities he had that made him such a wonderful friend. We were blessed to have known him!

“ We at Kolbe would like to express our sincerest sorrow and sympathy to the family on the passing of Chuck.
Many of us remember Chuck very well from our personal and business relationships that we had with him, Steve and his firm Shenandoah Sash and Door. Chuck served on our Advisory board for many years and we have posted a photo here in remembrance of his time spent with us. Chuck was a great business man, had a huge heart and a contagious laugh. The photo is from our 2000 Advisory Board meeting.

I personally had worked with Chuck on many occasions and considered him a friend as many of our executives also did .

Again, our condolences to the family.

“ Oh, how I remember our childhood days in Alexandria - Charlie living on Ridge Rd. Drive and me around the corner on Valley Dr. back in the 50's. What fun we all had! Over the years after marriage and kids, so glad we stayed in touch, by getting together periodically for lunch. What a dear kind soul, Charlie was, and will be missed greatly.
