“ Jeanette was a charming, elegant lady who was a living example of the Proverbs 31 godly woman. To paraphrase ----she had a noble character--her family had confidence in her--she worked at home and in the work place--she opened her arms to those in need--she was clothed in strength and dignity--she could laugh daily (and often)--she spoke with wisdom--she watched over her family and others--most of all she was a woman who feared the Lord "but a woman who feared the Lord is to be praised".

She was a close personal friend and we worked (and played) together with the area Christian Women's Club groups of the Stonecroft Ministries. It was always her desire to reflect the Lord in all that she did and she did that in abundance. She was a woman of prayer and action, and I will miss her. Irene Hall

“ Aunt Jeanette was such an important part of my life and I will always be eternally grateful to our Lord for her influence, support, Godly example, care, love, and all the wonderful family memories of which she is such an integral part! Even through all the losses she endured in recent years, her flame of faith never grew dim. She always stood firm upon the truth of Scripture and the foundation of her faith in Christ. She was our "second mom" and we will ALWAYS love and miss her so very much. Her legacy of faith will live on through all the prayers she prayed and the seeds of love and faith that she planted.
Such a great lady who lived out her faith in our great Savior!

“ I have been so blessed to have such an amazing woman in my life. I was lucky enough to be her neighbor until we moved in third grade. However, that didn't keep us apart. I visited her on week-ends and I spent a week at her house every summer until I graduated from college. I always called her Aunt Nette and she was my mom's best friend. Things I will always remember: playing in her camper that sat out in the driveway, special trips to church with her, eating tuna fish sandwiches on Sundays, trips to the McKimmey farm, hitting tennis balls against Guildford Elementary, summer fun, stories about me when I was a baby, her laugh, her positive attitude, her love for the lord, and her kisses.

“ "Jeanette made everyone feel a if they were family. I am sure all of us who knew her from Faith Bible Church, the Bible Studies she was a part of, and her many acts of kindness to so many in Sterling, Va., could retell life changing events she was a part.

For my family, it was those special times when you need a friend, like the day your daughter gets married and every helping hand is a blessing. Jeanette, prayed for our family and loved on us and we were blessed to call her friend and a sister in Christ."

“ Dear family of Jeanette,
Jeanette was such a wonderful example of a loving prayer warrior. I have many fond memories of time spent with her as a part of "Stonecroft Ministries" and "Christian Women's Club" ..trips we made together, times spent in prayer together and much more.
Jeanette was such a gracious lady. You knew that she would always greet you with her welcoming smile that made you feel so special. I feel so blessed to have been her friend. She touched many lives and left a beautiful legacy of faith and trust to those whose lives she touched!

“ I thank Him for the life of this sainted servant, who never waived from her faith and testimony even through profound life losses and health issues. She inspired me and everyone who knew her with her radiant smile, sunny disposition, and giving spirit. We grieve our loss, but rejoice in her transition to the home she knew was waiting to embrace her. - Ruth Hill
