

Jill Marie Andres

July 14, 1970 - January 8, 2021

Jill Marie Andres, 50, of Ashburn, Virginia passed away from heart complications on Friday, January 8, 2021, at INOVA Loudon Hospital Center in Leesburg, Virginia.

Born July 14, 1970 in Buffalo, NY, Jill is survived by her loving husband, Paul J. Andres, her father, Anthony Rao, her brother, David Rao, her beloved and dearest childhood friends Lori and Joe Cyrek, and her 10 nieces and nephews (from both her direct and extended family). Jill has now joined her beloved mother, Patricia Janak Rao, who passed away in 2003.

Jill was a loving and caring wife, daughter, sister and friend, who brought so much joy to everyone with her kindness and generous spirit. She will be lovingly remembered and greatly missed.

Jill and Paul have been together 25 years and married for 20 years. Together, they enjoyed traveling around the world and exploring new destinations with friends and family. They especially loved the islands of Hawaii. They also enjoyed hosting nieces and nephews on their trips to Disney. Jill never missed an opportunity to share her experiences and passions with friends and family: she loved working in her garden, decorating their home, making delicious meals and sharing her love of wine. She was an amazing baker and loved to share her favorite recipes. Jill was an avid reader and after filling her library with the books she devoured, she decided to start filling her beloved Kindle.

Jill was known for her steadfast strength and resolute spirit. When her best friend Lori's mother passed away, she comforted her with the words, "Continue to talk to her, she is always with you... Everything is going to be ok. Keep going." And this is what we will do to honor Jill, keep going.

Private Family Visitation hours will be held Saturday, January 16, 2021 from 10am-11am at the Loudon Funeral Chapel in Leesburg Virginia.

The funeral service will be held immediately after at 11 am, and will be streamed to Jill's page here,

“ My heart is so saddened to hear of the passing of Jill. I had the privilege of meeting her when we worked together at Ingram Micro in Buffalo. We became friends and went on several vacations together. I will always cherish those memories. Jillie was a smart, funny and beautiful soul. To Paul and Jill's family, my thoughts and prayers are with you at this difficult time.

“ I had the honor and privilege to work with Jill for over 10 yrs resulting in a friendship to last a lifetime. We often had deep, early-morning chats about life's challenges, weekend warrior projects, trips, new recipes, and even discussed our future hopes and dreams. I've always valued her kindness, her attentive listening, her positive attitude, her comforting nature, and her unconditional support and sage advice.

We were kindred spirits in several ways, sharing similar values and outlooks on life. We also shared a common enthusiasm for our polish heritage exploring cultural traditions including Dingus Day, cookie weddings and preparing homemade pierogies from scratch. As a yearly tradition, we would spend an entire day making pierogies. Jill's thoughtful planning for this special day meant that we had everything we needed to prepare the perfect pierogie... even including that early-morning martini we sipped on while rolling out the dough and blending the filling. We always concluded with a pirogue lunch to test our creation and explain to Paul why the traditional pirogue recipe was void of meat.

These are just a few of so many memories that we shared that I'll treasure and keep close to my heart... always.

“ Jill and I worked together for 6 years in total and over that time it has been both a pleasure and a privilege to have known and worked with her. She always brought such energy and positivity to the projects she worked on and all her colleagues enjoyed working with her. I personally took any opportunity I could to collaborate with her on projects. Jill's passing has left a big hole for me and my colleagues and she is sorely missed. My thoughts and prayers go out to Paul and Jill's family.

“ Aloha! I'm Paul's cousin, Jerilyn. My fondest memories of Jill will always be when she and Paul visited my husband, Steve, and me when we lived in Hawaii. I had not known Jill that well, but by the time our fun filled island adventure ended we truly bonded. Indulging in Huli-Huli Chicken (not Garlic Shrimp) from the famous Giovanni's Shrimp Truck, a scrumptious bowl of ramen noodles at Lucky Belly, Pineapple Dole Whip at Dole Plantation, and Haupia Pie at Ted's Bakery all helped seal the deal. I love how breaking bread genuinely connects people. Jill is a kind, gentle and sweet soul who will absolutely be missed. Go visit these places in Oahu sometime and think of her!

“ I will always remember Jill fondly. Steve and I feel very fortunate that we got to cruise with Paul and Jill. Some of our best memories of that trip include our long dinner conversations over good food and wine, where we got to know each other better. Jill has such a gentle spirit. She was kind, thoughtful, intelligent, engaging, adventurous, and fun. During that trip, she mentioned that she was a fan of "Shark Tank." Based on her recommendation I watched it and was hooked. Ever since, I think of her nearly every time I see it. I wonder if together we are yelling at our respective TVs, saying "Take the deal!" like armchair quarterbacks. Sometimes you meet a person just briefly but their spirit makes a big impact. Steve and I had always hoped to go on more adventures with Paul and Jill because their enthusiasm for life was so infectious. I believe that each of us has two lives. One that we live physically, and one that we live in the hearts of everyone who loved us and was positively impacted by us. I know that Jill's beautiful spirit will live on for a long, long time.

“ My deepest sympathies to Jill's family and close friends. I wanted to let everyone in Jill's family know how much those of us on the NICHD team enjoyed working with her. Most of all (and especially this year), her cheery voice at the other end of the line always let us know that whatever issues we were facing with our projects could be worked out. I am guessing that was how she managed most of her life - being positive and helpful. thank you, Jill.

Lisa Kaeser - January 12 at 01:06 PM

“ My sincere condolences to the family for there great loss. Having worked with Jill for several years in the past, I fondly remember her very pleasant personality, kindness and professionalism. Just as a small example, every year during the holidays she would make for her team members, delicious chocolate truffles, placed in a small box with a nice ribbon. Her kind spirit will continue to be a positive influence.

“ My sister Jill are you a generous person and loving she always put herself above and beyond anybody else and made everybody feel welcome if she ever met you... Since my grandmother and my mother passed she was the matriarch of the family... she loved her family especially her nieces and nephews... She loved to travel with her husband Paul we always did things together rarely did you see them apart... Jill loved to travel... The one memory I have is she travel to Disney World with my mom Patricia Rao and there's a famous picture of my mom posing with goofys statue at Disney.....Going on wine trail was Jill's favorites....Just her zest for life and making people happy...that is what my sister was..and I'm going to miss her immensely

I especially liked the times when I could have 1:1 calls with her because we'd be sure to make time to swap travel stories and share our excitement about upcoming trips. I knew I could count on Jill for travel tips to just about anywhere! I will miss those conversations. My heart goes out to Paul and to all of Jill's family. She will certainly be missed. “ Dear family, I had only met Jill and David once when they were small because we traveled due to my husbands military service. Your mother Pat and I went to grammar school , high school ,we worked together at the phone company. We were in each other's weddings. I have thought about her through the years. I am saddened to hear about Jill's passing but but believe that she and her Mom are together again. My prayers go out to you all. May God give her Eternal rest.
