“ Please know our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this most difficult time. It is certainly difficult to see beyond the sorrow you and your family are experiencing. While we know words of sympathy are only a small gesture of support, we want to remember how Ed has touched many people’s lives in such a positive, loving and at times, in funny ways. There is no doubt Ed’s passing will be a great loss to all who knew and loved him.

Treasure the many years and memories you have had with Ed and you will remember him always with a very special place in your hearts. Those we have loved do not go away, they walk beside us every day, unheard, but always near, still loved, still missed, but forever in our hearts.

Faith, family, and friends will always be there for you. Through faith, God gives us tremendous strength, even when life seems so over whelming. Happiness is knowing that in your hearts you will always have Ed to hold and keep near. Your beloved Husband, Father, Grandfather is Save in the Hands of Our LORD.

With Deepest Sympathy, Mike & Mary Bruns

“ I have only learned of Ed's passing today (6 Dec 19). He was a friend to so many of us at TASC and was an exemplary manager who helped so many of us along the way. A true people oriented guy who I will miss very much.
