“ I attended public school in Loudoun County and knew Wilma as a friend and classmate. She was one of the kindest, happiest most down to earth girls I can remember. She will be remembered for all her goodness. My condolences to her family. Sally Chamblin

“ Had a bit of a crush on Wilma in High School, tho she never knew it. Loved her sweet face with radiant smile. Got out my Yearbook and read her comment to me...seems like yesterday in a way. Rest in peach, Wilma...blessings to all your family. Kermit Frye, class of '58

“ Wilma was my Sunday School teacher at Sterling Park Baptist Church. As a young teenage girl she made quite an impression on me. She was so sweet and kind and patient to each of us girls in her class. She always had a smile and kind words and gentle advice when needed. I adored her.
